

NIKA is seeking a Jr. Fire Protection Engineer in the Baltimore-Washington, DC area. We are a leading fire protection consulting firm providing range of professional services involving life safety, fire protection, security and mass notification on commercial, institutional and industrial projects for clients worldwide.

NIKA is a well-established company that is focused on growth within an entrepreneurial environment. We are revolutionizing how businesses and governments design, build and manage real property by combining architecture and engineering, enterprise technologies, and facilities operations management services all under one roof. When you become part of the NIKA team, you join an organization that encourages teamwork, idea sharing and personal development.

If you're excited about a position that provides you the opportunity grow your career in a fast-paced environment and work alongside some of the most innovative and eclectic professionals in the industry, apply today!

Job Description:

- Fire Suppression Systems (suppression, detection and water supply)
- Evaluation of existing fire protection program elements
- Troubleshooting existing impairments
- System tests and walkdown/inspections
- Development of Fire Protection Engineer/Cognizant System Engineer training/qualification processes
- Evaluation and improvement of current facility and system conditions

Requirements:

- BS in Fire Protection Engineering preferred. NICET II or above helpful.
- 1-5 years of experience
- Experience with CADD, Revit, and Site survey
- Experience with government and/or healthcare facilities desired
- Analytical experience preferred. Design experience desired.
- DOD acceptable