

Student Paid Internship Opportunities

The Council on Tall Buildings and Urban Habitat (CTBUH) is a non-profit organization that leverages its research, organizational scope and global influence to positively impact the planning and design of the world's urban centers. The next generation of thought leaders will be instrumental in guiding this future – will you be a part of that effort?

The CTBUH is looking for sharp, talented individuals to join our team! The internships may support in some or all of the following areas: website management; graphic design and layout; original writing; dedicated outreach; and more.

All internships are paid ($15.00 per hour) and will be full-time over summer with flexibility to work part-time around your academic schedule in the fall. Successful candidates will work in our downtown office.

For further information about our internship opportunities, visit ctbuh.org/careers or contact careers@ctbuh.org.

HOW TO APPLY:

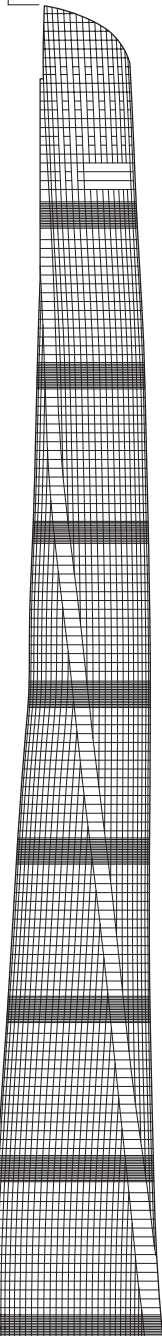

Please send a brief cover letter (1) explaining why you would be ideal for this role, along with a resume (2) and evidence of something you've designed/organized (digital document, webpage, etc.) and/or a writing sample (3) to careers@ctbuh.org.
