

February 2018

CONSULTING FIRE PROTECTION ENGINEER – SAN DIEGO, CA

Veltre Engineering, Inc., a Fire Protection Engineering and Consulting firm has been serving the South West United States has an excellent opportunity in San Diego, California.

At Veltre Engineering you will be challenged to develop your knowledge, skills, and abilities, and contribute to the company's growth. Rewards include a competitive salary, health insurance, 401k plan, bonus opportunities, and other benefits. Salary range is dependent upon experience and capabilities.

U.S. Government project experience with minimal supervision and the proven ability to manage multiple deadline-driven tasks is preferred. The successful candidate must have demonstrated experience in exceptional report writing and interpersonal communication skills.

Position Minimum Requirements:

- PE License
- Drivers License / Vehicle
- Ability to gain access to military bases
- Ability to climb ladders, survey existing facilities, and perform construction inspections in various climates.

Desired Knowledge/Ability:

- 6-8+ years of experience
- Hydraulic Analysis
- Fire Sprinkler System Design
- Fire Alarm System Design
- Life Safety Code, International Building Code
- Basic AutoCAD skills
- Multitasking via an array of small and large projects
- Organizational skills

Desired Experience:

- Design Review Services
- Design Services
- Commissioning Fire / Life Safety Systems
- Supporting Business Development

Applicants must be self-motivated and dedicated to supporting the growth and mission of the company and professional development. For full consideration, please email a cover letter, resume with salary requirements and references to john@veltreengineering.com.

Veltre Engineering, Inc. is an equal opportunity employer.